Waiver: I, the undersigned, understand that drinking, dancing and hitting on members of the opposite sex are dangerous activities. If I get hurt or do something dumb like piss on my girlfriend's (soon to be ex) curling iron, I will not hold any part of MisManagement responsible for any consequences or beatings that may ensue. I understand that MisManagement is not responsible if I get over-served, fall down, get puked on, lose shit I shouldn't have brought to an open bar anyways or thrown out of the bar for any reason. I will do my best within any incoherent state to avoid pissing off any other member of this year's spectacular MisManagement.
